

This sheet doesn't come close to what our members get however, if you're not in a cash based league then it should be fine to get you off to a good start. I prefer to have SOS, ADP, Projected Points and Bye Week all in the same sheet - which is why I created our members only cheat sheet system. You can also build your own which I link to below, for free.

This sheet will get you through the first 7 or 8 rounds and is based on PPR leagues. This sheet is sorted in the order of how I would rank them in a draft based on information available in August. This sheet will get old so download current stats from our website.
